activity. The Virginia State Police case was closed at that time and the substantive warrants were turned over to the Buckingham County Commonwealth's Attorney.

On June 10, 2016, Buckingham County Commonwealth's Attorney E.M. Wright advised the FBI that his office had no interest in maintaining the substantive warrants against Wanamaker, and that he intended to file them with the circuit court to cause their dismissal.

For the reasons set forth herein, the United States moves for dismissal of the UFAP complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

RICK A. MOUNTCASTLE
Acting United States Attorney
